

The Educational Spirit Award honours an exceptional individual who ignites a lifelong love of learning, whether in a traditional classroom, a home school environment, or through community-based education. This award recognises a passionate educator, parent, or mentor who goes above and beyond, break down barriers to knowledge, and inspire curiosity. The recipient embodies patience, creative teaching, and an unwavering commitment to helping learners reach their full potential. Sponsored by Tayto

Hannah O'Neil is an exceptional teacher at St Brendans, consistently going above and beyond for every child, regardless of whether they are in her class. With the biggest heart, she creates a fun, positive learning environment where education and students' happiness always come first. Firm yet fair, Hannah has patiently cared for hundreds of children, turning tough days into happy ones. She has personally helped students succeed and thrive, making her a brilliant teacher and a true inspiration to the entire school community.
